For those mourning the sad loss of a beloved friend, a memorial keepsake can act as a very personal reminder of the happy times that you shared together. Following cremation, Sentimental Connections are able to encapsulate part or all of your beloved's ashes, suspending them in a bright clear polymer that can be formed into a precious item of hand made jewellery, an elegant plaque or a stylish photo frame.

Sentimental Connection's method for encapsulating your loved ones ashes produces a smooth and attractive granite like effect in the finished item. As we use ONLY the ashes you provide us with, each handmade item becomes totally unique, just like your beloved was in life.

So at this difficult time you can be sure that whichever range of our keepsakes you choose, it will act as a subtle reminder of your time together and be a lifelong tangible and precious token.
